

BOWDLEFLODE NEWS 10th Edition 2018

Welcome.

With every Bowdleflode News, we bring you interesting facts about Bowdlefloreland and The Bowdleflode Stories as well as about Planet Earth with features about Endangered Species.

Lots going on in the world of the Bowdleflores.

Children's fantasy animals galore are always arriving at the Online Bowdleflode Zoo.

Please do get your child's or grandchild's school involved as we begin to build the biggest online zoo in the world. Primary Schools in particular seamlessly fit this project into their art classes and every child gets their very own free website page with their own fantasy animal featured.

Here are just some.

The Bowdleflode Project encourages creativity in children with its online fantasy zoo but also aims to concentrate minds on the fate of Endangered Species on Planet Earth.

This wonderful Worf has just arrived in the Online Bowdleflode Zoo sent by a 5 year old girl from Bosham Primary School in West Sussex.

CEDRIC BOWDLEFLODE with two friends in the Bowdleflode office barn in October 2018

Children regularly visit the Bowdleflodes HQ, in West Ashling, near Chichester, with their parents, to meet Cedric and his friends and hear the author Neil Lawson Baker reading some of the Bowdleflode Stories. There is always a warm welcome and a visit can easily be arranged by emailing:-

neil@bowdlefloodes.com

Neil also visits schools to meet the children in their art classes.

Slindon College boys on 21st November with their Bowdleflode certificates all signed by Queen Charlotte.

www.bowdlefloodes.com

Here is the new volunteer ZOO KEEPER at the Online Bowdlefloode Zoo.

MONSIEUR CROCNOIR

has been sent to the zoo by the famous street artist

THIERRY NOIR

PLEASE SIGN UP FOR OUR FREE BOWDLEFLOODE
NEWSLETTER WHILE YOU ARE ON OUR WEBSITE.

www.bowdlefloodes.com

THE BOWDLEFLODE PROJECT MISSION IS TO SUPPORT ENDANGERED SPECIES

News about Endangered Species floods in daily and it is our mission to bring the numerous worldwide problems to the attention of all our readers and especially to try to engage children at a very young age to be aware of the problems facing Planet Earth.

Photo from Unsplash.com

Photo by Ulet Ifansasti Greenpeace

We bring you news from a number of leading zoos across the UK, as well as from organisations such as Greenpeace, Flora and Fauna International, WWF and others.

THE BOWDLEFLODE NEWS WILL KEEP YOU UPDATED ON MANY DIFFERENT FEATURES CONCERNING ENDANGERED SPECIES

www.bowdleflodes.com

BOWDLEWARE

If children's parents or grandparents or friends would like to buy a Mug or T Shirt with their child's fantasy animal on it, with a Bowdleflode on the reverse side, many products will soon be available from the websites e-commerce platform but while this is being developed you can e mail direct to the Bowdleflode Office who will help you find exactly what you need..

neil@bowdleflodes.com

£10 including postage

