Our Head of Learning visits Portsmouth High

It's been a busy start to term for all and our Head of Learning, Mike Hoebee has had the pleasure of visiting Portsmouth High Prep to see how they have been getting on with the Bowdleflore Project. The girls really got so much out of the project, discovering lots about endangered species and achieved some amazing results - so much so that Headmaster Paul Marshallsay has made it part of their curriculum. Take a look at his testimonial below!
